Attorney Ken Lane distributed the Frequently Asked Questions Document for the Police and Fire Retirement System.

Trustee Fabus inquired about when health care would start for members who purchased military time, universal time, or were deferred. He requested that information be included in the Frequently Asked Questions document.

Ms. Williams explained that members who purchased military time received health care at retirement. Members who purchased universal time were required to wait until their true anniversary date as indicated in the bargaining agreement. Members who were deferred received health care at the time of retirement under the contract in place.

Ms. Williams updated the Board regarding disability income verification and re-exams. Ms. Williams provided a list of duty disabled retirees to the disability subcommittee for review. Ms. Williams indicated that the retirement office would send out a second letter for members who have not submitted their income verification. If the retirees do not respond to the second request, the Board may suspend their pensions until compliance. The disability subcommittee provided a list of members to be re-examined to the retirement office.

Karen Williams indicated that the Legal Advisor Request for Information (RFI) prepared by the City Attorney’s Office, would be reviewed at the Joint meeting with the Employees Retirement System Board
