Chief Yankowski stated a press conference was held on June 14th, 2019, regarding the incident that occurred on Dakin Street. At the time of the press conference he had limited information. As a follow up to the information shared during the press conference on Friday, June 14th, the Lansing Police Department had the opportunity to review body worn camera video and obtain additional facts of the case. On Tuesday, June 18th, 2019, 911 audio and police reports were released.
The body worn camera footage was released on June 15th, 2019. On Saturday, June 15th, Lansing Police Chief Mike Yankowski placed Officers Lindsey Howley, a 1-year department employee, and Bailey Ueberroth, a 6 month department employee, on administrative leave while an Internal Affairs investigation is conducted regarding their actions during the arrest of a 16 year old juvenile on June 14th.

These allegations are taken very seriously. The Internal Affairs Investigated is being conducted. There is no timeline to date. He hopes the investigation will be completed in 90 days or less. Chief Yankowski thanked Assistant City Attorney O’Boyle for working with LPD staff to redact the body worn camera video and police reports to ensure FOIA laws were followed.

Chief Yankowski explained he is here to listen and that LPD will conduct a thorough investigation.
