

Andy Schor, Mayor

RACIAL JUSTICE & EQUITY COMMUNITY ACTION PLAN

MAYOR'S RACIAL JUSTICE AND EQUITY ALLIANCE [MRJEA]

The Mayor's Racial Justice and Equity Alliance will examine policies, practices and biases to gain a deeper understanding of how to eradicate violence and racism in Lansing through systematic fair treatment of all. Tapping into their operational roles, collective expertise and lived experiences, the MRJEA will contribute to the development of community-inspired police Use of Force policies and will also develop a community-inspired Racial Justice and Equity Plan.

Timeline: MRJEA structure will be in place to commence work on or before July 30, 2020.

Executive Leadership Team

Purpose: To plan and effectively conduct meetings and lead activities of the MRJEA. Also, to effectively engage the public and the steering committee, the advisory committee and coordinated workgroup subcommittees to ensure that the overall goals for each phase of the work are achieved.

Members:

- FUTURE STEP

NEXT STEPS

- Town Hall Listening sessions to be held by MRJEA leaders and Mayor's Diversity and Inclusion Advisory Council
- Police Use of Force Community Conversations to be held by the Board of Police Commissioners
- Budget review with community regarding resource allocation for enforcement, community services and social safety net

LONG-TERM PLAN

- Work with City Council on budgetary adjustments identified by the MRJEA and during town hall meetings
- Share results of Police Use of Force Community Conversations and identify any needed reforms
- Develop and implement any needed policy changes for the police department (Community Policing and other police reforms, etc.)
- Work on Policy changes in City Ordinance or City Charter in conjunction with City Council
- Create a Racial Justice and Equity Plan for the City

PHASE 1: RESEARCH AND COMMUNITY INPUT

The Mayor's Racial Justice and Equity Alliance (MRJEA) will conduct research by performing internal and external environmental scans and hosting town hall meetings, focus groups and individual meetings. Information and data obtained will be used to inform the revision of community-inspired police use of force policies and to develop a community-inspired Racial Justice and Equity Plan. Results of research and community input will be shared with the community for their review and feedback.

Timeline: July - September 2020

Research

- Identify key internal and external issues and concerns that have been presented to the Mayor and other City leaders from individuals and groups.
- Review and analyze relevant City policies, procedures and practices.
- Perform a full review of the police department's current Use of Force policies.
- Explore a possible infrastructure change to include social workers as part of the police department's structure.
- Perform a full review of the structure of the Lansing Board of Police Commissioners and the Board's police oversight and community engagement roles.
- Develop a survey to disseminate to the public.

Community Input

- An electronic input survey will be provided to the public.
- Town Hall Listening sessions will be held by MRJEA leaders and Mayor's Diversity and Inclusion Advisory Council on 7/23, 8/6 and 8/20 from 5:30-7:30 p.m. via Zoom.
- The Lansing Board of Police Commissioners will hold police Use of Force Community Conversations on 7/8, 7/22 and 8/19 from 5:30-6:30 p.m. via Zoom.
- Focus groups and individual meetings will be conducted by MRJEA leaders.

PHASE 2: REVISE USE OF FORCE POLICIES AND DEVELOP RACIAL JUSTICE AND EQUITY PLAN

The Mayor's Racial Justice and Equity Alliance (MRJEA) will prioritize data and input obtained during Phase 1 to inform the development of community-inspired police use of force policies and to develop a community-inspired Racial Justice and Equity Plan.

Timeline: October 2020 - January 2021

Revise Use of Force Policies and Develop a Racial Justice and Equity Plan

- Review, analyze and prioritize research and community input.
- Provide additional input based on MRJEA members' expertise and lived experiences.
- Inform the proposed revised Use of Force policies.
- Develop a comprehensive Racial Justice and Equity Plan.

PHASE 3: LONG-TERM PLAN

The Mayor, along with the Mayor's Racial Justice and Equity Alliance (MRJEA) and the Lansing Board of Police Commissioners will share approved police reforms, including use of force policies and a Racial Justice and Equity Plan with the community.

Throughout the year, education and training will be provided and community input will be received to inform updates.

Long-term Plan

- The Mayor and the MRJEA will announce the approval of the final revised Use of Force policies and the Racial Justice and Equity Plan.
- The Mayor and his Cabinet will develop and implement policy changes for the police department (Use of Force, community policing officer/social worker structure). They will work with City Council to enact relevant policy changes in the City Ordinance or City Charter.
- The Mayor will work with City Council on budgetary adjustments identified through Phases 1 and 2.
- The City will conduct Cultural Competency/Racial Justice and Equity Awareness Professional Development Workshops for City employees and constituent groups.
- The City will host an annual conference to report accomplishments, progress and challenges and to receive ongoing input from the public for improvements.

Input survey, Zoom meeting details and more information can be found at Lansingmi.gov/MRJEA
