- An extension to file does not extend the time to pay the tax due. Tax paid late will be assessed late fees.

- Line 2: Enter the total payments that you expect to report on your 2020 Form L-1040, page 2, line 4, not including the extension payment reported on line 3 of this form.
- Filing Date: The Income tax ordinance limits an extension to SIX months from the original due date.

- Related Information:
- Federal extension: Filing a federal extension (Form 4868) with the Internal Revenue Service does not grant an extension of time to file a Lansing income tax return.
- Persons living outside the United States: Where the Internal Revenue Code grants an automatic two-month extension to persons living outside the U.S., an automatic two-month extension will be granted.

- Payment:
- An extension is automatically granted upon payment of the balance due (line 3); failure to pay the balance due invalidates the extension request; an extension filed without a payment will be not accepted.
- Interest and penalty will be assessed on taxes paid late even if an extension of time to file is granted.
- Penalty may be waived by the Income Tax Administrator if the tax paid by the original due date is not under stated by more than 5% of tax or the taxpayer can show that the failure to pay on time was due to reasonable cause.
