Local Administrative Order No. 2009-3

USE OF CELL PHONES AND OTHER ELECTRONIC DEVICES

IT IS ORDERED:

All cell phones or other portable electronic devices shall be turned off when in any courtroom. No photographs may be taken in any courtroom, office, facility, corridor or space used for official court business or by judicial employees without the express permission of the court.

Any exception to the prohibition of cell phone use in a courtroom must be expressly authorized by the court. In the event that an individual is allowed to have a cell phone on in the courtroom, the phone must be silenced, and the individual shall not initiate or answer any calls or text messaging while the court is in session.

Failure to comply with this Order may result in a fine, incarceration, or both for contempt of court.
