Death Investigation

On Friday April 27, 2018 @ approximately 2:00 a.m. Lansing Police were dispatched to an unknown trouble inside a residence in the 400 block of S. Jones. Ingham County 911 dispatch updated responding Officers stating a female caller from the residence said a male subject has broken into her house and is fighting with her husband (Home Invasion).

Upon arrival Officer made contact with the female and male home owner who just exited their house. Both home owners had apparent injuries on their body. Both indicated an unknown male subject broke into their house armed with a weapon and confronted them. The home owners had a physical confrontation with the subject and were eventually able to escape out of the house. Both home owner's required medical treatment and both were transported to a local hospital for non-life threatening injuries.

Officers went into the house and located an unresponsive male subject (intruder). Upon further investigation it was determined the subject was deceased. No other people were located in the residence.

Lansing Police and Detectives continue with this death investigation. Information and events are subject to change and will be updated as this investigation is in the early stages. When available, updated information will be shared and released. No arrests have been made
