Death Investigation

On Monday, 7/1/19, Lansing Police Officers were dispatched to a residence in the 800 block of Loa St. on a reported discovery of possible human bones.

Upon arrival Officers secured the scene and requested assistance from members of the Michigan State University Forensic Anthropology team, Michigan State Police Human remains analyst and the Medical Examiner's Office; all of whom verified the discovery consisted of human remains.

The Lansing Police Department Investigations Division, Michigan State Police and Lansing Crime Scene Investigators are continuing their investigation. An autopsy will be done in the near future by the Medical Examiner's Office. Additional information will be shared when it comes available.

As in all investigations such as this, the Lansing Police Department encourages anyone with information call one of the following contacts: Detective Trooper Issac Mills @ 517-483-6866, Detective Sergeant Troy Johnston @ 483-6867, Lansing Police Department @ 517-483-4600, Crime Stoppers @ 517-483-7867, or Private Message the Lansing Police Department Facebook page.
